

A 1973 Issue -- Will Justice and Facts Prevail or Will Missouri Clout Prevent Illinois Airport?

By WILLIAM F. WINTER
Editor
(Second of a Series)

Any recital of 1973 challenges in the Quad-City area and St. Louis metropolitan region inevitably must include the issue of how to keep pace with future air transportation needs.

There is still widespread confidence that the Federal Aviation Administration and U. S. Department of Transportation will flash a "green light" for construction of a $350 million intercontinental airport at a large and ideal site situated between Columbia and Waterloo, Ill.

Hope that the new airport will become a reality takes into account the belief that it is the only way St. Louis can avoid losing out to Kansas City and other Midwestern cities in competition for economic growth during the final quarter of this century.

Only through the establishment of a safe, spacious, ultra-modern landing field is there much prospect that firms, agencies and residents will choose this region in sufficient quantity for St. Louis to keep pace with the rest of the nation in prosperity and adequate job opportunities.

The issue is so clear-cut that the massive "hue and cry" from St. Louis County and St. Louisans has confirmed Illinoisans' worst fears about where they really stand in the hearts and minds of their neighbors to the west.

When the chips are down, self-interest or imagined self-interest seems to be the deciding factor and many prominent Missourians cut and slash freely at the much-maligned "east side." They try to paint the people and climate here in such a way that both private developers and government administrators shy away from Southwestern Illinois.

The Missouri reasoning is that this kind of approach benefits that state.

However, few Illinoisans have forgotten that St. Louisans sabotaged a fur company's move across the Mississippi River to Collinsville.

Thwarted, the company closed up in St. Louis anyway and moved to the nation's East Coast. As a consequence of the down-with- Illinois activity, the entire St. Louis region lost an employer.

There has been so much unfair, distorted propaganda regarding the airport issue that it is hard to decide where to begin in describing it.

Headline after headline has seized upon an isolated, unrepresentative section of various studies and reports to proclaim a conclusion far different from the actual gist of the material.

The latest example is a report by the nine-member Aviation Advisory Commission, which includes James S. McDonnell, board chairman of the McDonnell Douglas Corp.

His company has a vested interest in the future of Lambert Field, where one of its major manufacturing plants is located, and also in the future of the short-take-off-and-landing (STOL) airplane, which would use small airports.

persuasive powers, the commission's Jan. 3 findings did not rule out major new airports, although concluding that the U. S. perhaps can get by with three new ones rather than a previously projected 12. Nor did the report relate specifically to the Quad-City area.

In fact, the two key conclusions regarding cost and environmental impact both underscored the advantages of constructing a Columbia-Waterloo airport rather than trying to expand and hemmed-in Lambert.

But more "evidence" was added to the "case against an Illinois airport," casual readers may have thought, after the way in which the latest study was described.

If many more weeks or months go by without a favorable federal decision on the Illinois airport, the result will be unjust, in the viewpoint of thousands of Illinoisans who live close enough to St. Louis-St. Louis County to feel the bruises from its freely-wielded "clout."

ist Airport Among Chief State Needs

Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie, in his final message as governor, outlined the unfinished business of state government Saturday and called for "courtesy, cooperation and compromise" to continue the progress of the Ogilvie years.

In a written State-of-the-State Message required by the Illinois Constitution, Ogilvie declared: "The one element that seems to be common to the successes of the last few years was the spirit of bi-partisan cooperation that was achieved."

"We surmounted more often than not the differences between the parties, the rivalries of Chicago and Downstate, and the personal bickering and cross-accusations which frequently are the substitutes for action."

"I leave office proud of the job that all of us — in and out of the administration and in the General Assembly — did for Illinois."

"That success could not be continued unless in responsible positions forego the rhetoric of political campaigning and the self-defeating and narrow partisanship of parties, factions or geography."

"Courtesy, cooperation and compromise must be present in abundance if you, your successors and the new administration are to achieve the kinds of results that will bring another four years of significant progress to Illinois."

"To seek less, unworthy of those in positions of public trust and responsibility."

Ogilvie's message reviewing his administration, mentioning its successes and failures, and continued: "There is always a natural tendency in a new administration to discount the achievements of the predecessor administration."

"But the political campaign is over and the shrillness of its charges and defenses should end also."

"Thousands of dedicated citizens both inside and outside of government have brought about the achievements of the past four years."

"Their accomplishments benefit all the citizens of Illinois, and the task ahead is to build on them, not tear them down."

"The successes far outnumbered the failures, and the state of the state is good. In many areas that are critical, it is excellent."

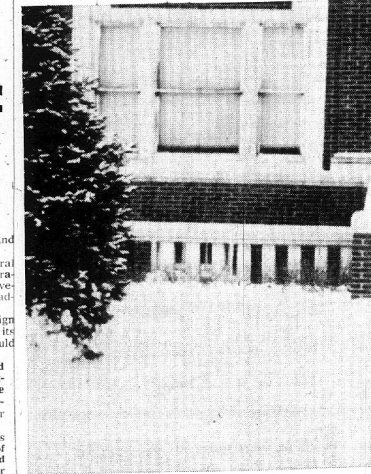

"The challenge (now) to everyone is timeless and ever new."

"To build a state and a country that may never be, except as our constituents desire and create them."

Ogilvie laid heavy emphasis on his institution of the executive budget-making process. He said this replaced "intellectual bankruptcy" of former years in which "the spending of prior years for any given purpose was the automatic starting point for increases."

"By starting at a base of zero, we forced a major change in the budgeting process."

Ogilvie said he ordered the Bureau of the Budget in mid-1971 to conduct a study of the three-level brick building has 48,496 square feet of floor space and contains 24 classrooms, including a manual

Aides Caused Ogilvie Loss

By KEN WATSON

Copley News Service
Springfield — When Richard B. Ogilvie came down to Springfield from Chicago four years ago he had the reputation of a master politician but with doubts freely expressed about his ability to govern the state of Illinois.

As he leaves, the 1969 assessments are turned around.

He leaves office recognized as one of the best governors Illinois has ever had. He also leaves behind the rating as one of the worst politician-governors in the modern history of the state.

His brief but exceedingly productive tenure is packed with paradoxes.

He made a number of brilliant appointments to key positions and gave those selected the leeway as well as the necessary support to effect outstanding accomplishments.

At the same time he staffed his immediate office with a predominance of people who seemed not only determined to fence the governor off from the people of Illinois but to leave no stone unturned to assure that his would be a one-term stand.

This is perhaps, a harsh judgment. But it is one unquestionably held by the overwhelming majority of the news people who have covered his administration, plus many important legislators, scores of local government officials and representatives, Republican party workers from all levels, and that wide variety of people whose work brings them in contact with the governor's office.

In spite of the large amount of money the state traditionally allows a governor to spend for the purpose, Ogilvie's public relations were incredibly poor.

It was only a matter of lack of imagination from his press aides.

Tactlessness in dealing with the many who call at the governor's Capitol office was not a strong point of the Ogilvie staff.

One mistake from a tactical standpoint was the selection of the late House Speaker Ralph T. Smith of Alton to succeed U. S. Sen. Everett M. Dirksen and then face the potent Adlai E. Stevenson III in the 1970 race.

Probably most catastrophic was the failure of Ogil-

With Central Junior High School to be phased out of existence at the end of this term, the Granite City Board of Education and administration are considering possible uses of the building for the future.

The use of the 60-year-old structure will be somewhat limited because of its nature, according to Trilly Heubner, director of buildings and grounds.

State Pay Hikes Voted

Illinois judges will get $2,500 yearly salary boosts as a result of legislation enacted Saturday and signed immediately by outgoing Governor Richard B. Ogilvie.

The 177 representatives and 59 senators will receive a $224 yearly expense allowance for time spent in Springfield. Their $17,500 annual pay remains the same, but their allowable yearly office costs will rise from $6,000 to $10,000.

And seven state officials will be given substantial salary increases: Governor, $45,000 to $50,000; Lieutenant governor, $25,000 to $37,500.

Attorney general, secretary of state and superintendent of public instruction, $30,000 to $42,500; State treasurer, $30,000 to $40,000.

State comptroller, a new job title, $40,000, the state auditor, a post now eliminated, received $30,000.

The overall pay boost package will cost taxpayers an extra $2,900,000 a year.

The 400 state judges — supreme court, appellate and circuit—are to receive uniform increases of $2,500 each, boosting their respective totals to $42,500, $40,000 and $30,000.

Associate judges of the circuit court will continue to receive present yearly salaries — $23,500 for lawyers and $20,000 for non-lawyers.

The session was called by Gov. Ogilvie when a salary agreement proved impossible to achieve in a special session ending in December.

Eniott Ticket Files Today at Pontoon Beach

A full ticket of candidates for Pontoon Beach village offices became the first to file nominating petitions as the filing period opened today for the April 17 municipal elections in Pontoon Beach, Madison and Venice.

No filings were reported this morning in either Madison or Venice.

Petitions filed this morning by the Civic Improvement Association ticket were for Thomas Elliott, 16 Eastgate Drive, candidate for president of the Pontoon Beach board, and Harold E. McBride, 4116 South Drive, Gilbert L. Yungler Jr., 6 Georgetown Drive, and William L. Luchini, 7 Violet Court, candidates for trustees.

The village clerk, Mrs. Mary Staudman, 5 Victoria Drive, who accepted the petitions, also filed for re-election on the CIA of the present village board president, Otto Kreher, 3549 Lake St., as village clerk on their ticket, the Village Improvement Party organization. Kreher is not seeking re-election as board president.

A spokesman for the VIP ticket also said this morning that if the VIP candidates are elected they intend to serve without per diem pay each member presently receives for attending meetings.

The village president now receives $30 per meeting and each trustee receives $20 per meeting. The board regularly meets twice a month and the members are also paid for any special meetings.

Madison is to elect a mayor, city clerk, treasurer and village aldermen, and Venice voters will choose a mayor, city clerk, treasurer and four aldermen.

TV SET, BANK STOLEN
An 18-inch color television set and a bank containing $200 were stolen in a burglary at the home of Jackie Whitaker, Holiday Mobile Homes Park, on Dec. 22 or 23, the reported Saturday to the Madison County Sheriff's Department.

They said that they intend to run Mrs. Corrine Kreher, wife of the present village board president, Otto Kreher, 3549 Lake St., as village clerk on their ticket, the Village Improvement Party organization. Kreher is not seeking re-election as board president.

Ruling on Appointing Due Friday

A motion for a change of venue by Madison Levee Board members William "Mike" Ebersold and Russell Robinson in injunction proceedings barring a walk-off strike at the East Side Levee and Sanitary District along the county line was overruled in circuit court at Belleville this morning.

Circuit Judge Robert Gagen at the same time took under advisement a motion to dismiss the injunction as it applies to appointments by Governor Daniel Walker and said he would deliver a ruling on that plea no later than Friday.

Judge Gagen said a hearing on the injunction to bar the split of the district will be continued at 9 a.m. next Monday.

A hearing was still in progress at mid-day in the Circuit Court at Belleville on dissolving or continuing a Dec. 26 order which restrains the new Madison and St. Clair levee and sanitary districts from operating.

The hearing had been scheduled for Friday but Circuit Judge Robert Gagen instead attended a seminar in Mount Vernon.

Parties to the case had not been notified of the delay.

Nameoki Ditch Adequate to Serve Dobrey, Vesci Areas, Guillou Says

The Nameoki canal is adequate to handle drainage from the Dobrey Slough area in a temporary flood relief project designed by the state, John Guillou, chief engineer of the Illinois Division of Waterways, told a meeting in the city hall here this morning.

Gaillou, who came here to check easements necessary to construction of a drainage line from the south end of Dobrey Slough to connect with the present Amos Avenue stormwater line, met with city and levee district officials and representatives of residents living in the area.

The engineer informed Mayor Donald Partney and Alderman Thomas Baker that he will send a letter to the City Council outlining in detail engineering factors pertaining to the drainage capacity of the Nameoki canal.

The council held up approval of the temporary relief program a week ago because of a question of the Dobrey Slough drainage overloading the ditch.

Baker said arrangements also were completed for acquiring right-of-way required for the new section of stormwater line.

Others attending the meeting included William "Mike" Ebersold of the Madison Levee and Sanitary District; Street Superintendent Lionel Perrelli; City Consulting Engineer Edward Ju-

Gibson Heads Capital Development

Robert G. Gibson, 45, a native Granite Cityan and long-time resident here, was chosen Friday by Gov. Daniel Walker as chairman of the Illinois Capital Development Board.

Gibson moved to Chicago in 1963 after becoming secretary-treasurer of the Illinois State AFL-CIO (American Federation of Labor-Congress of Industrial Organizations). Previously, he was state chairman of the labor Community Services Activities.

Gibson has been vice-chairman of the Capital Development Board since its creation last August.

Recalling the Illinois Building Authority, the Capital Development Board is expected to have a major voice in such construction programs as the scheduled building of two new classroom structures at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Gibson is a former chairman of the Granite City Housing Authority.

He began his association with the labor movement as a member of United Steelworkers Local 16 in the open hearing department of Granite City Steel Co.

Recording and financial secretary of Local 16 for a total of three and a half years, he also became recording secretary of the Tri-City Industrial Union Council (CIO).

Gibson next became a staff representative of the Illinois Industrial Union Council. When that group merged in 1958 with the Illinois State Federation of Labor, he began directing the new union community services program.

Upon the death of Illinois AFL-CIO Secretary-Treasurer Maurice F. McElligott, he was elected to that office July 11, 1963, and has held it since that time.

A past Granite City Democratic chairman, he was active in Madison County Young Democrats and treasurer of the National Young Democrats.

He was one of 120-130 from the U. S.-young political leaders who gathered at Bonn, Germany, in February 1963 for a conference sponsored by the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

In other appointments, Friday, Gov. Walker chose Jerome J. Miller, 40, as director of the Department of Children and Family Services and Frank A. Kirk, 45, as director of the Department of Personnel.

Miller is commissioner of the Massachusetts Department of Youth Services. He is a former associate professor at the Ohio State School of Social Work.

Kirk, a Carbondale resident, is a consultant for the Southern

Rapid Transit to Waterloo Airport Site Studied and Found Economically Feasible

Illinois Transportation Secretary William F. Cellini, on Friday released a study indicating the feasibility of rapid transit service between the proposed St. Louis regional airport in the Columbia - Waterloo area and the Union Terminal facility in downtown St. Louis.

The exploratory study was conducted by Metro Airport Associates in cooperation with the Illinois Transportation Department Office of Planning, Programming and Environmental Review Office of Research and Development and Office of Mass Transit. It considered several different types of transit service and terminal facilities.

Cellini commented: "The study indicated that the transit service could range from an exclusive non-stop, high-speed airport service to an extension of the proposed regional rapid transit system serving St. Louis, East St. Louis and surrounding areas."

"An intermediate 'commuter' type service with several along-route stops could also be considered.

"A major conclusion of the study is that all three of the options would be economically feasible."

The report shows that a combined system with both express and local service would provide the best all-around service potential for the various transit needs.

The system could provide express trips from downtown St. Louis to the airport in about 25 minutes.

Approximately 20,000 airport related passengers could be accommodated. This represents about one-quarter of the total daily trips expected at the new airport by 1990—roughly equivalent to the present daily trips to Lambert Field.

Local service on the transit extension could expect to carry about 18,000 non-airport related trips daily, mostly commuter trips to and from downtown St. Louis.

The study recommended use of the Union Station properties in downtown St. Louis as a transit terminal because of direct access to freeways and present rail facilities.

The existing Union Station facilities could be developed to serve a variety of future transportation needs, it was asserted.

In addition to transit system recommendations and the use of Union Station as a terminus, the study projects economic benefits such as industrial development providing 5,000 additional jobs in the area served by the transit system.

Cellini pointed out that as the airport design progresses "there will be need for additional study of rapid transit facilities" as recommended by the engineering consultants.

The airport was proposed by Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie to serve both Illinois and the metropolitan St. Louis area and would be the third major airport in Illinois. The U. S. Department of Transportation has not yet approved the proposed airport site.

Brides-to-be are usually fully preoccupied with the fact that they are about to acquire one of that species known as "husbands". As to the care and feeding of this particular possession, I can't help you. But I can tell you that the wedding "husband" comes from the Norwegian word, "Hans Bond", which means "husband with a house".

Nowadays, not every new husband comes complete with a house. In Norway, though, a man was required by law to own his home before he could get married.

Weddings were big in Norway. When the daughter of a well-to-do household married, the servants of the household requested to be married on that day also. It must have required a tremendous amount of food and drink to take care of a wedding party that large.

If you have the same problem, a wedding and not enough Silver, remember that Hudson's will be happy to lend you the Silver Candelabra, Punch Bowl and other items for your reception. There is no charge for this service. It's just another way that Hudson Jewelers are prepared to help make your wedding everything you dream it will be.

As a Bridal Consultant, trained by National Bridal Service, I'll be happy to help you with any other problems you may have. Do come in again and register with us. We have a lovely gift awaiting your visit.

Suit by Scott on Construction Of Vienna Correctional Center

Attorney General William J. Scott has filed a two-count damage suit asking $1.7 million in judgments against two architectural firms and an electrical contractor involved in construction of the Vienna Correctional Center located near Vienna in Johnson County.

The complaint was filed last week in Sangamon County Circuit Court at the request of the Department of General Services.

Count I of the suit names as defendants Curtis and Davis, Architects and Planners, Inc., New Orleans, La., and Samuel E. Sanner & Associates, Inc., Alton.

That count asks a judgment of $1,701,000 against the two firms who, as joint venturers, provided architectural design and construction supervision services for the project.

The state's suit alleges that numerous problems have arisen from the construction of certain buildings and equipment at the institution that are unsuitable or defective.

It contends, for example, that the electrical power system and the power plant were extremely over-designed. Although the state could have saved substantially by using wire to supply the power, a much more expensive high-capacity, aluminum shielded cable was chosen, it is alleged.

Two boilers installed generate so much excess power that even a single one cannot be operated at a low enough capacity to be efficient, the suit contends.

Count II of the suit names as defendant Sachs Electric Co., St. Louis. In asking for a judgment of $130,000 against the electrical contractor, the complaint notes that the state has already spent $10,000 for circuit failures and other repairs to the institution's electrical system.

The additional $120,000 sought is for further repairs and replacements that will have to be made, the suit charges.

The state's suit alleges that aluminum cable, cable splicing and connector equipment purchased from Sachs was defective. It also contends that the Sachs firm damaged the splicing and connector equipment in improperly installing it.

The Vienna Correctional Center, located seven miles east of Vienna, is the state's only minimum security facility for adults.

Dedicated Oct. 8, 1971, it was the first new facility in corrections built in Illinois in forty years.

With a maximum capacity of 600, the present population is 400 residents.

An experimental program, without fences or guard towers, the institution offers a wide variety of academic and vocational programs.

winter roads at summer speeds. Remember that posted speed limits apply to normal conditions, and these limits become "too fast" when ice and poor visibility loom ahead.

If you must stop in a hurry, pump the brakes. Jamming them will likely cause a skid, and possibly an accident.

Adjust your driving speed to the "feel" of road surfaces, the Institute advises. When you are moving smoothly, test the steering, the acceleration and the brakes.

Many of the accidents that occur during winter months result from obstructed vision. Refuse to drive "half-blind."

Take the brief time required to let your defroster clear the fog from your windshield. Use a cloth or a scraper to clear your windshield and windows of snow, ice or spattered mud.

When traveling, plan your trip and start early to reach your destination safely. A late start may produce anxiety at the wheel and a resulting urge to drive faster than normal in winter's congested traffic conditions.

Guest Day Stated for Jr. College Students

Students from community colleges throughout Illinois and four bordering states have been invited to the 15th annual Junior-College University at Carbondale.

The program is designed to let prospective transfer students visit the campus and get specific information about the University.

Representatives from various SIUC units will explain policies and procedures regarding housing, transfer credit, financial aid, admissions and student activities. A panel of students who transferred to SIUC will describe the process and problems they encountered.

M. George Mandis, program director, said the Office of Admissions and Records will provide on-the-spot admissions service for guests who want to enroll. Housing contracts for on-campus residence halls also will be made available.

Simon Secretary Will Join Hartigan's Staff

Lieutenant Governor-elect Neil F. Hartigan has appointed Mrs. Earl (Yvonne) Rice, Lt. Governor Paul Simon's personal secretary for 3½ years, to direct the final phase of the transition period.

Hartigan also announced that Mrs. Rice would be promoted to administrative assistant in charge of his Springfield office functions. He commented:

"Mrs. Rice is one of the most able persons I've ever worked with. In the 15 years that she has served state government, the legislature and the office of lieutenant governor, her ability and hard work has carried her from a stenographic pool in the Office of Public Instruction to the highest-level of administrative responsibilities."

"She is a great resource for this office and the people it serves."

"The fact that Mrs. Rice worked on a day-to-day and face-to-face basis with the concerns of the office and the problems of the people of the state for almost four years assures a continuance of the record of excellence established by this office and Paul Simon."

Last November, Bates spoke at a teachers' center in Clayton, Mo., that also was started by O'Brien. Bates, former mathematics coordinator for the Toronto school system and author of avant-garde math programs for a major textbook publisher, spoke about a child-centered mathematics curriculum.

"What he had to say mesmerized everyone," says Pat Budde, a teacher at St. Augustine's School in Belleville.

"We just had to bring him back so more people would have a chance to hear his message. Listening to him, we got to the point where we wanted to run up to Toronto and see first-hand what he was doing in his school."

Mrs. Budde, O'Brien and others could not go to Toronto last November, but they will travel there with Bates Thursday to visit the Blake School and complete the international exchange.

Bates' visit to the Belleville Area Teachers' Center, housed in St. Augustine's School, 1600 West Belle, is scheduled at 5 p.m. Wednesday. He will meet earlier that day with area school superintendents.

The teachers' centers recently received an $18,700 operating grant from the National Science Foundation.

O'Brien, who spends much of his time at the centers when he is not teaching at SIUE, describes them as "informal, grassroots operations involving teachers getting together and trying to better teach children."

Kahoks Trip Warriors 49-41 In Conference Cage Action

Collinsville High School's Kahoks may still be undefeated but they know they were in a ball game here Friday after narrowly defeating the Granite City High School basketball Warriors 49-41.

Collinsville, apparently expecting an easy victory, held back three of its starting five but quickly switched as the Warriors took a 6-0 lead in the first two minutes of the game. Collinsville Coach Virgil Fletcher realized it would not be a push over and put in all five of his big guns.

"On one hand I have to be very proud of our team as they played a tremendous defensive game as evidenced by the low Collinsville score, but on the other hand as a coach I am very frustrated and disappointed in our team's inability to hit it," Collinsville Coach Don Deterding lamented.

The Kahoks were ahead at the end of the first quarter 13-9 and at the half 26-18; but the Warriors narrowed their lead to only two points, 39-37, at the end of the third quarter. In the final quarter the Collinsville cagers outpointed the Warriors 10-4.

The Granite City defense forced Collinsville into 30 turnovers but was unable to convert them into baskets.

The Warriors counted 16 buckets in 46 attempts for a 35% floor average while the Kahoks hit 64% on 18 of 30.

From the charity line the local cagers hit 9 in 15 tries for 60% and Collinsville managed 11 in 20 tries for 55%.

Warrior Mark Gauen fouled out late in the fourth as the Warriors made 17 personal fouls to their opponents' 13.

"Their 64 Gary Tiemann is our guards, did a fine job. Martinez handled their press very well."

When asked who will stop Collinsville, Deterding replied, "Collinsville will have a real hard time with East St. Louis and although they have lost a couple of games when they meet Edwardsville later in the season the Kahoks will be in trouble."

Collinsville, winners of the Carbondale Holiday Tournament, is 11-0 overall and 4-0 in the Southwestern Conference. Granite City is 2-2 in conference action and 4-5 overall.

Warriors scoring in varsity play were Martinez 14, Tom Puterson 12, Tom Vrenick 10, Gauen 3, and Champion 2.

In junior varsity action the local team lost to Collinsville 68-63. Darrell Page was high point man for GCHS with 16.

The Warriors will travel to Cahokia Friday.

Undefeated Warrior Matmen Up Winning Streak to 31

Granite City High School's undefeated wrestlers had a field day Saturday as they cleaned house at the East St. Louis Quadrangular Tournament.

The Warriors defeated Springfield 41-15 and downed East St. Louis 36-8. They did not wrestle McCluer, the other team in the tournament. McCluer defeated East St. Louis 22-26 and downed Springfield.

The two victories for Granite City Saturday brought the Warriors a 31st consecutive winning streak to 31 in dual meets over the past three seasons, including 10 straight this season. The wins also were the 172nd and 173rd consecutive victories against schools in the sectional area, a record started in 1956.

It was unofficially disclosed this week that Granite City has been ranked fifth in the state.

Official rankings will be released this week.

Against East St. Louis, the Warriors won 10 matches and tied one while the Flyers were victorious in one match, pinning Dave Rushing (138) in 1:42.

Winners by falls were John Niebur (120) 5:27, Kerry Johnson (119) 1:11; Dennis Ragan (126) 4:22; Brian Wilson (155) 5:29; Jack Schoedley (167) 27 seconds; and John Avedisian (185) 3:15.

Decision winners were Steve Carland (68), substitute for Pat MacMillan who was ill, 11-5; Phil Lapinski (105), 11-4; Ken Nolan (145), 3-2; and John McMahon (heavyweight), 14-5. Dan Heath (132) fought to a 5-5 draw.

Against Springfield, the Warriors won eight matches, five by pins, and lost four. Pin winners were Johnson, 4-39; Ragan, 3-15; Nolan, 1-37; Wilson, 2-44; and Schooley, 3-42. Decision winners were Lapinski, 14-3; Heath, 15-3; and Rushing 4-4.

Springfield's wrestlers defeated Garland with a pin in 1:30, downed Niebur 7-3 and Avedisian 6-4, and Bill Lovacheff (heavyweight) 5-0.

Alton will bring its squads here tomorrow. Among the matches expected to be close are the 119-pound battle between Johnson and Alton's Phil Andrew, and the 167-pound dual between Schooley and Brian Jeehl.

The sophomore teams will wrestle at 6:30 p.m. and the junior varsity and varsity squads will compete simultaneously at 7:15 p.m.

Height Counts as Cougars Bow to Bethel Five 93-70

That old sports truism that a good team will nearly always best a good little one was proven accurate Saturday night at McKentzie, Tenn., as the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville basketball team was blasted, 93-70, by a towering Bethel College club.

There were two other factors which could have influenced the game's outcome: one was that Coach Jim Dudley's SIUE cagers were rusty from their long holiday layoff (they had not played since Dec. 19, while Bethel played three games in the Quincy College Christmas Cage Classic) and secondly, the Cougar cagers drove by bus (3 1/2 hours) to Tennessee immediately before the game.

The loss dropped the Cougars to 3-4, while the Bethel Wildcats moved up to 4-5. But, back to the old story about David and Goliath. Goliath Bethel started their starters all over six-foot-eight tall. And, the biggest and "bested" of all was Joe Reeves, who led all scorers with 23 points and 17 rebounds of the winners' game high of 54. While the Bethel boys' were dominating both backboards to the tune of 34 to 21 the SIUE troops went suddenly colder than the weather outside in their shooting the last half.

However, it looked like another story earlier in the game. The Cougars vaulted out to an 18-7 advantage after eight minutes of play and it began to look like Dudley's Dandies were going to destroy the home team. But Coach Doug Hines' players, encouraged by a capacity home crowd, put away the Cougars by coming at the SIUE. They finally caught SIUE, 23-23, with 7:44 left in the first half on a driving layup by one of two little players performing for Bethel, clever guard Jerry Reno.

Reaching back in their energy bank, the Cougars apparently shook off the Bethel threat by scoring six more consecutive points to make the score read 29-23 for SIUE. With 2:24 left in the first half Reeves turned out, that was all for the Cougars and Bethel went on to grab a 39-35 lead at the intermission.

Cougar scoring was led by Capt. Tony Johnson with 15. It was the first time this season that the senior guard from Cahokia had been held to less than 20 points. Bethel's Jerry Reno held Johnson to only two baskets in the first half.

Carrying the SIUE scoring burden the first half was sophomore guard, ace, "Butch" Ferree of Highland, Ind. He scored all six of his baskets in the first half. In the second half's first ten minutes the Wildcats outscored the Cougars by 14 points.

The Cougars have two more road games starting with Wednesday night's contest against Westminster College at Fulton, Mo., and Saturday night's game with Indiana State University at Evansville.

Inaugural ceremonies installing Dan Walker as the 38th governor of Illinois took place on the steps of the State Capitol in Springfield at noon today.

Other officers who took their oaths of office at the outdoor ceremonies include Neil F. Hartigan, lieutenant governor, and Michael J. Howlett, secretary of state.

Pre-inaugural ceremonies began at noon Sunday in Brookport when Governor-elect Walker, his wife, Roberta, and five of their seven children attended a noon brunch with a bi-partisan committee of local residents as hosts in the Brookport High School gymnasium.

The brunch was open to the public. Walker began his 1,197-mile walk of the state from Brookport on July 9, 1971.

The Walkers then flew to Vandalia for a reception in the Vandalia State House, the old State Capitol building which housed Illinois government from 1820-1839.

There was a two-hour reception in the old state house with Friends of the Vandalia State House as co-hosts. They were dressed in costumes and sought to re-create an atmosphere of 1830. The reception also was open to the public.

On Sunday evening, Governor-elect and Mrs. Walker were hosts at a pre-inaugural dinner in Springfield for persons who provided food, shelter and hospitality to the Walker family during the four-month, cross-state walk. The dinner was held in the ballroom of the St. Nicholas Hotel.

A pre-inaugural reception for Walker workers took place later Sunday evening.

The inaugural ceremonies today installing Walker, Hartigan and Howlett were arranged for an area in front of the statue of Abraham Lincoln facing toward Second and Capitol Streets.

Attorney General William J. Scott and Comptroller-elect George W. Lindberg took their oaths of office in separate ceremonies in the Capitol.

The inauguration ceremony began with the "Star Spangled Banner" played by the University of Illinois marching band, directed by Everett Kisinger.

Followed by the invocation delivered by the Rev. James P. Coleman, pastor of the Queen of Rosary Parish, Elk Grove Village, Ill.

Gwendolyn Brooks, poet laureate of Illinois, read an original poem composed by her for the inauguration.

Following the playing of the state song, "Illinois," by the University of Illinois Band and Rabbi David B. Saltzman, Educational Director, North Suburban Beth El in Highland Park, Ill., offered a prayer for the new state officers.

Illinois Supreme Court Justice Walter V. Schafer administered the oath of office to Walker, who then delivered the inaugural address.

Justice Schafer gave Walker his first job after he graduated from Northwestern University Law School.

Schafer appointed Walker to a staff position on the "Little Hoover" Commission on the reorganization of state government.

Following the inaugural address, oaths of office were administered by Illinois Supreme Court Chief Justice Robert C. Underwood to Hartigan and by Cook County Circuit Court Judge Nathan M. Cohen to Howlett.

Hartigan and Howlett gave short addresses following their oaths of office.

The benediction by Dr. Andrew Tempelman, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Springfield, concluded the official ceremony, followed by recessional music played by the University of Illinois band.

The high school concert band from Deerfield, Ill., Walker's hometown, played pre-inaugural music beginning at 11:30 a.m. on the grounds of the State House. The high school band is directed by Al Spricker.

This was the first time the inauguration was not scheduled to take place before a joint session of the state legislature.

The new Illinois Constitution of 1970 provides that members of the General Assembly will be installed on the second Wednesday of January, two days from now.

This evening there will be, as in the past, three balls honoring the new governor and first lady.

The balls will be held in the State Armory, the Rotunda of the State House and the Centennial building, beginning at 8 p.m. today.

Lou Brownie and his Mercury recording orchestra will play at the Armory ball; "Spice," a combo from Peoria, will play at the ball to be held in the Rotunda of the State House.

And Paulette McWilliams with "Grip," a combo from Cairo, will play for the ball to be held in the Centennial building.

Holiday Hams Not Taxable As Income--Revenue Service

(Internal Revenue Service)
Q Each Christmas my employer gives me a turkey. Do I have to include the value of this gift in my income?

A No. If, to promote good will, your employer makes a general distribution of turkeys, hams or other items of merchandise of nominal value at Christmas or another holiday, the value of those gifts is not income.

However, if your employer distributes cash, gift certificates, or similar items of readily convertible cash value, the value of such gifts is additional salary or wages.

Q I moved last May. How can I be sure the Internal Service will send my tax forms to my new address?

A Just leave your new address with the post office in your old neighborhood. The post office will forward the forms to you.

When you get your 1972 income tax return, be sure to correct your address on the label in your tax return packet. If you do not receive your tax forms package in the mail, you can obtain blank forms at any IRS office, most banks and post offices.

Q My employer is transferring me to another state. What are the rules for deducting moving expenses?

A In general, your moving expenses are deductible if you satisfy certain distance and time requirements.

The distance between your new place of work and your old residence must be at least 50 miles farther than the distance from your old residence to your old place of work.

Secondly, during the 12-month period immediately after your arrival in the general area of

Woman Hurt in Fall Sues for $50,000

A suit for $50,000 has been filed for Martha Kunemann against the City of Granite City in Madison County Circuit Court.

The complaint alleges that last Aug. 25 she sustained injuries to her right arm, hand and shoulder when she tripped and fell on a sidewalk and curb at Pontoon Road and Franklin Avenue.

Your new place of work, you must have worked full-time for at least 39 weeks.

If you are self-employed, a different time requirement applies.

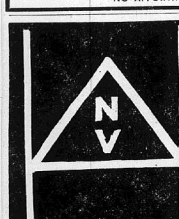

For more details, write your Internal Revenue district office at Springfield and ask for a free copy of IRS Publication 521, "Tax Information on Moving Expenses."

Q Both my wife and I are having dental work done and I'm going to have a big medical expense deduction.

Is there any way to get some kind of benefit for this new to help me pay some of the bills?

A Yes. You may be able to have your employer reduce your income tax withholding based on the larger itemized deductions you expect.

Instructions for making this change are given on Form W-4. Ask your employer or your IRS office for a copy.

Spend All 'Clean Water Act' Funds — Sen. Stevenson

By LESTER BELL
Copley News Service

Washington — President Nixon's impoundment of Clean Water funds is picking up foes and Sen. Adlai E. Stevenson III, D-Ill., may join the active opposition.

The Nixon Administration's announcement that he is withholding $6 billion passed in the Clean Water Act of 1972 threw many state and municipal clean-up plans into confusion.

Demands for release of the funds are beginning to mount. Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Me., a sponsor of the bill, told a financial seminar here that he and his colleagues are considering court action to force the president to carry out the full $16 billion program.

"Because of the seriousness of the legal and constitutional issues involved, I do not believe that Congress itself should let the President's invasion of his prerogatives go unchallenged," Muskie said.

Stevenson aides said they "do not preclude the possibility" that the Illinois senator will join Muskie and others in bringing suit against the White House. They cited Stevenson's statement following the White House impoundment action.

Stevenson said voters elect Congress to carry out their will on such issues as cleaning up Lake Michigan and other waters only to "suffer a severe setback" when the President impounds funds.

"As a member of the Congress," Stevenson pledged, "I will do everything I can to see that President Nixon doesn't accomplish by executive order what he could not accomplish by a veto."

Stevenson's aides took this to include court action. Stevenson certainly would not be averse to joining Muskie in seeking a judicial decision and helping Illinois with its ambitious water treatment plans. Stevenson supported Muskie's Presidential ambitions from the outset.

In other Illinois offices on Capitol Hill there was no indication that Springfield may be exploring the possibility of court action such as New York City has filed against the Nixon Administration.

New York City has filed a suit in the U. S. District Court here on behalf of all local governments in New York state. Illinoisans here said there have been rumbles on the Hill that Michigan and Florida are considering litigation.

These sources speculated that Illinois may bid its time. They reasoned that outgoing Gov. Richard Ogilvie would hesitate to take such an initiative in the waning days of his office while incoming Gov. Dan Walker lacks the authority until he is sworn in.

The complaint alleges that Beringer, employed by the railroad as a switchman, was injured last Dec. 13 when a speaker and pole fell on him in the Bremen yards. Negligence was charged.

TELEVISION SET STOLEN
Vida Pierce, 2903 Roosevelt Ave., reported at 4:10 p.m. Thursday that a 12-inch television set valued at $103 and a half pint of whiskey in a jug-type container were stolen in a burglary of her home. Entry was gained by forcing garage and kitchen doors.

Air Force Cadet Program at SIUE Bucks U. S. Trend

The Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps (AFROTC) program at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville is bucking a national trend of declining enrollment, says Lt. Col. James Eberwine, head of the program at SIUE.

"We started in 1965 with seven cadets enrolled in a two-year program," Eberwine said. "Now there are 72 cadets in the two-year and four-year programs combined and enrollment has increased every year."

Nationally at the 184 schools offering AFROTC, enrollment dropped from 25,390 in 1971 to 23,214 as of Sept. 30, 1972, the most recent reporting date, according to military officers in Washington, D. C.

Eberwine, who holds the rank of professor of aerospace studies at SIUE, says enrollment at the university is expected to increase significantly during 1973, largely because of the four-year program initiated in 1972.

The four-year program, which like the two-year program is voluntary, requires students to apply by Nov. 15 of their senior year in high school. Applications should be sent to Maxwell Air Force Base in Alabama.

"A major advantage of the four-year program is that it offers a four-year scholarship paying full tuition, fees, a book allowance and a monthly subsistence allowance of $100," Eberwine said. "Three of our students here already have been granted the four-year scholarship."

Students enrolled in the two-year program are eligible for the same kind of scholarship, but they don't receive benefits for as long a period.

Eberwine said AFROTC is open to women, and there are now five women enrolled at SIUE. In this regard, SIUE is in step with the national trend, according to national figures.

The AFROTC office is in Room 0248 of the General Office Building on the Edwardsville campus. The telephone number is 695-3180.

MR. AND MRS. MICHAEL D. MONROE. They were married in a candlelight ceremony at the First Church of the Nazarene in Granite City. The bride is the former Ronda Sue Whitaker, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Whitaker of Glen Carbon, formerly of Granite City.

Ronda Whitaker Married In Candlelight Ceremony

Miss Ronda Sue Whitaker and Michael Dale Monroe, U. S. Navy, exchanged wedding vows in an early evening ceremony on Dec. 30 at the First Church of the Nazarene, 2400 E. 25th St.

Officiating at the double ring candlelight service was the Rev. Herbert W. Merritt, pastor.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Whitaker of Glen Carbon. The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Monroe, also reside in Glen Carbon. Both families are former Granite Cityans.

Miss Dawn Orman of Edwardsville sang "More" and The Lord's Prayer, accompanied by Mrs. Herbert Merritt at the organ.

Attending the bride were her sisters, Miss Sandra Whitaker, maid of honor, and Misses Teri and Donna Whitaker, bridesmaids.

They wore identically designed A-line style gowns fashioned with deep purple velvet bodices and long sleeves and skirts in light orchid chiffon. Each held a cascade of baby orchids in a lavender shade.

Escorted down the white carpeted aisle and given in marriage by her father, the bride chose to wear a nylon lace dress, featuring a fitted bodice with a Sabrina neckline and long tapered sleeves.

The very full skirt of tiered lace ruffles extended into a butterfly train and she wore a forward headpiece of lace petals edged with pearls to secure her bouffant veil of imported illusion. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of white and lavender orchids in a lavender shade.

Another sister, Sharon Whitaker, escorted as flower girl and was carried by Kyle Monroe, ringbearer, a brother of the groom. The former was gown in a white chiffon frock and carried a white wicker basket filled with miniature lavender orchids.

Dale Ethington, was best man and Daryl Monroe, a brother of the groom, Ronald Byrd, Phillip Byrd and Henry Wyatt, the groom's cousins, were the groomsmen.

Miss Becky Whitaker, also a sister of the bride, presided over the guest register at a reception held in the church fellowship immediately following the service. Her full-length gown was made of purple velvet and featured leg o' mutton sleeves.

Mrs. Whitaker chose for her daughter's wedding a pink chiffon street-length dress. The groom's mother, Mrs. Monroe, was attired in a blue polyester knit dress, trimmed in silver and seed pearls. Each wore a white carnation corsage.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Monroe are graduates of Edwardsville High School. They will reside in Norfolk, Va., where the groom is stationed with the U. S. Navy.

Nancy Benson Becomes Mrs. Gary Lynn Willis

Miss Nancy Gay Benson, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis L. Benson, 263 W. St. Clair St., Irving, Tex., and Gary Lynn Willis, son of Granite City Patrolman and Mrs. Leo Willis, 3143 Wayne Ave., were united in marriage Saturday at the First Baptist Chapel in Abilene, Tex.

Dr. James Flammig officiated at a double ring ceremony at 2 o'clock in the afternoon before an altar adorned with floral arrangements and greenery.

A brass arch holding candelabra with burning tapers provided the background lighting. Music was furnished by the church organist preceding the service. The selections included "Twelfth of Never" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mr. Benson escorted his daughter down the white carpeted aisle and gave her in marriage. She wore a bridal gown fashioned of Val lace inset with white velvet ribbon. The collar and midriff of the Empire style dress were created of imported silk chiffon. Long lace sleeves were cuffed with wide bands of chiffon, accented with rows of delicate skirt sweep into a chapel-length train.

She wore a camelot style headpiece to secure her bouffant veil of bridal illusion, and she carried a cascade of white canations and pink Sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Linda Jones, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor, serving with bridesmaids, Miss Sue Willis, the groom's sister, Mrs. Vicki Hogan and Mrs. Doreen Klekamp. The latter three attendants are from Granite City.

All were identical gowns created of pink chiffon and enhanced with burgandy lace at the neckline, on the cuffs of the sleeves and marking the high rise waistlines. Each held a bouquet of pink carnations and Sweetheart roses.

Amy and Brad Benson, a sister and brother of the bride, served as flower girl and ring-bearer. She was dressed in a long pink frock and she carried a wicker basket of pink petals.

The groom chose Richard Klekamp of Granite City as his best man. Kelly Hogan, Tony Eck, Jim Becker and John Van Buskirk, all of Granite City, were bridesmaids.

Members of the wedding party and the families of the couple were entertained at a rehearsal dinner given at the Golden Stagecoach in Old Abilene Town, Abilene.

The newlywed couple received guests at a reception held in the Crystal Room of the Downowner Hotel in Abilene, immediately following the service.

AFTER-THE-FIRST PARTY

An after-New Year's party was held Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. Mary Fryntz, 2622 State St., for members of the Octavia Birthday Club and friends.

A buffet luncheon was served to Mesdames Mary Lockhart, Ann Jarrett and daughter, Ann Marie, Lorraine Gilmore, Ginny Mariette, Vivian Davis and daughter, Carol Ann, Shirley Murphy, Joan Yetter, Doris Stotz and son, Kelly, and the hostess's son, Michael.

RELATED HOLIDAY PARTY

A belated Christmas party was given Thursday in the home of Mrs. Carmen Grider, 2575 Washington Ave., for the Koffee Klatchers Social Club. The members exchanged gifts and shared their secret plans around a lighted tree.

The secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Joan Yetter, gave a financial report and names were drawn for 1973 secret pals.

Plans were made for a dinner on Jan. 25 at which the birthday of Mrs. Olivia Kummel will be celebrated. The club is to meet at the home of Mrs. Yetter, 2400 Edison Ave., at 10 a.m. for a social before going out for lunch.

Mrs. Grider showed a mechanical potato peeler and talks on antique glassware were given by Mrs. Allene Moore and Mrs. Helen Santagato.

The table appointments were in keeping with the theme: miniature white wicker baskets filled with holiday flowers were at the place settings.

A noon luncheon was served to those mentioned and to James Mary Rita Ahlers, Helen Bertacchi, Marcella Obranovich, Dolores Sanders and Doris Stotz.

The adult attendants' dresses. She carried a white basket filled with deep red rose petals.

Brice Singler, Trenton, Ill., son of best man, William Swinny and Alan Wellingshoff, both of New Baden, and Gregory Ward, Wood River, were bridesmaids. Seating the guests were Carl Schubert, the bride's brother, and James Swinny, New Baden.

Mrs. Schubert selected a long skirt of floral print brocade in burgundy worn with a pink blouse and complemented with a long-sleeved jacket in burgundy velvet.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Odom, was attired in a street-length dress of burgundy double-knit polyester, fastened with a small collar and enhanced with a long scarf in a fabric print. Both mothers wore corages of pink carnations and red roses.

An informal dinner was served at the home of the bride for members of the wedding party, following a rehearsal at the church.

James Davis, New Baden, and Deborah Butler, Granite City, presided over the guest book at a reception held at the American Legion Hall in New Baden. About 400 guests attended.

After a wedding trip, the couple will reside in Belleville where both Mr. and Mrs. Odom are students at the Belleville Area Junior College.

The former Miss Schubert is a member of the Student Nurses Association at the school, and her husband is employed as a deputy sheriff at the St. Clair County Jail, in addition to completing his academic studies.

$50,000 Suit Filed Against N&W Railroad

A suit for $50,000 has been filed for Leslie Fevabend against the Norfolk & Western Railroad in Madison County Circuit Court at Edwardsville. The complaint alleges that Fevabend, employed as an electrician in the railroad's Luthers Yards, was injured last March 11 as he was helping other employees move a heavy object. Negligence was charged.

BOAT MOTOR STOLEN

Hugh Dix, 2702 Buxton Ave., reported Thursday that a 40 horsepower motor was stolen from a boat in his back yard. It was valued at $450. A chain and lock were cut.

informational Meetings Set for Stock Producers

By JAMES R. SHEARL
U. of I. Assistant
Extension Adviser

Two important informational meetings are coming up in January for cattle feeders and swine producers. A cattle feeders' seminar will be held Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Stockyard Sale Arena at East St. Louis.

A swine seminar is scheduled Jan. 17, 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Augustine's Restaurant, Belleville. Both meetings will cover topics of current interest to cattle and swine producers and provide key information for 1973 management plans.

Ask yourself the following questions if you are going to be raising feeder cattle or swine in 1973:

Do I have a current understanding of proposed livestock pollution regulations? Will I need to build additional livestock facilities in 1973? If so, will the facility I am planning to build comply with proposed pollution regulations?

Am I up to date on swine and beef disease problems and how to spot early symptoms? Are my management techniques what they should be? Do I have a current understanding of livestock marketing trends?

If any of the questions raise a thought of uncertainty in your mind, it may be advantageous for you to jot that question down and bring it along to one of the livestock seminars.

Four livestock specialists in the fields of nutrition and management, veterinary medicine, ag engineering and economics will be on hand at both meetings to provide the latest information and answer questions.

Field conditions remain poor. Warm temperatures melted all ice and snow patches and left fields wet and soft. The condition of corn and soybeans still in the field varies quite markedly from field to field, but in general both crops have held up remarkably well.

The shortage of liquid propane gas remains unchanged. No reports have been received

All Illinois soybeans are not poor quality. However, the Illinois Crop Improvement Association reports that 45% of 866 soybean samples tested by Dec. 12, 1972, germinated at less than 80%. Germination at the 80% level is generally considered the minimum for good quality soybeans. In most years, properly harvested and stored soybeans germinate in the high 80's or low 90's.

Ohio and Indiana report germination results even more disappointing. In the central Corn Belt, only Iowa has more good than poor quality soybean seed. Because the situation is so widespread, it may become necessary to use soybean seed below the normal standard of 80% germination this year.

WHAT WAS A THERIAC OF MATTHIOLU?

Back in the 16th century, persons afflicted with plague were frequently given a medication that consisted of 120 ingredients which when mixed and ready for the patient weighed 13 pounds, and only was it of dubious value, but the time involved in the preparation (several days) and the cost made it almost prohibitive to the average patient.

Today we have come a long way from the Theriac of Matthioli, but there are still some prescriptions that have to be compounded of more than one ingredient. We welcome prescriptions like this that give us a chance to show our professional skill.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.
